

LODGERS POLICY 2022

1.0 OBJECTIVE

The purpose of this policy is to set out Ochil View's arrangements for considering applications to take in a lodger in an Ochil View property as set out in the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001 and in our Scottish Secure Tenancy Agreement.

2.0 MAKING AN APPLICATION TO TAKE IN A LODGER

Ochil View will consider an application to take in a lodger where the tenant has sought our permission to do so in writing. The tenant must supply relevant additional information at the time of applying for permission.

2.4 In the case of an application to take in a lodger, the tenant must inform the Association of the name and date of birth of the proposed lodger, the proposed lodger's current or most recent address, details of any tenancies held by the proposed lodger and the amount of any payment and any deposit to be paid by the proposed lodger.

2.5 Permission to take in a lodger will not be granted by the Association for more than an initial 6 month period. However, following a request by our tenant this period may be extended or renewed in exceptional circumstances.

3.0 ASSESSING AN APPLICATION TO TAKE A LODGER

The assessment of applications for permission take in a lodger will take account of both our tenant's and the proposed lodger's circumstances and in all cases, must satisfy the criteria set down in Section 32 and Part 2 of Schedule 5 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001. These criteria are set out as Appendix 1.

3.1 In addition to the reasons for refusal as set out in this Policy, Ochil View may refuse consent to take in a lodger on other reasonable grounds.

4.0 REASONS FOR WHICH AN APPLICATION TO TAKE A LODGER MAY BE REFUSED

Although this list is not exhaustive, some of the grounds under which an application may be refused are:

- ✓ A Notice of Recovery of Possession has been served on the tenant on any of the "conduct grounds" set out in paragraphs 1-7 of Schedule 2 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001(attached as Appendix 2).
- ✓ An Order for Recovery of Possession has been made against the tenant.

- ✓ A payment has been received by the tenant, in cash or in kind, in consideration of the lodging request that is not a reasonable rent or deposit.
- ✓ Ochil View intends to carry out substantial work on the property.
- ✓ There is damage or disrepair to the property caused by the tenant, a member of the household or a visitor to the property.
- ✓ The tenant has outstanding debt owing to Ochil View in terms of their tenancy being either arrears of rent, rechargeable repairs or any other debt related to their occupancy of the property.
- ✓ The Association has been given incomplete or false information about the application.
- ✓ The house is unsuitable for the prospective lodger's needs.
- ✓ The prospective lodger has pursued a course of anti-social behaviour or has been convicted of using a previous tenancy for illegal or immoral purposes or has an Anti-social Behaviour Order.
- ✓ Where the terms of the lodging arrangement are deemed by the Association to be unreasonable.
- ✓ The residency of the lodger would lead to overcrowding of the property.
- ✓ The Association has been advised by the local authority Sex Offenders Liaison Officer that the proposed lodger's occupancy of the property is not compatible with appropriate risk management.
- ✓ That the Association would not grant a tenancy to the proposed Lodger for reasons set out in the Allocations Policy.

5.0 RECORDING AND PROCESSING OF APPLICATIONS

The recording of applications to take a lodger is the responsibility of the Housing Services section. The appropriate Housing Services Officer is responsible for the processing of all applications including the granting or refusal of permission in accordance with this policy and meeting the requirement to respond within twenty-eight days.

6.0 ENTITLEMENTS, PAYMENTS AND BENEFITS

6.1 Board members, officers and employees of housing associations cannot be in a situation where their duties and personal interests, conflict, or might conflict, and they must not benefit in any way from their connections with the Association.

When the tenant or the proposed lodger is an employee, former employee, Board Member or former Board Member, or someone closely connected to them (a relevant person) the decision to grant or refuse permission shall only be by approved by the Director of Housing Services or Chief Executive. The granting of permission to take in a lodger will only be approved if:

- ✓ Fully in compliance with our Lodgers Policy and our procedures for allowing a tenant to have a Lodger involving one of our people or someone closely connected to them, and
- ✓ Neither the existing tenant or anyone closely connected to them was involved in or had influence over the process by which we approved the Lodger, and the permission is approved by the Director of Housing Services or Chief Executive
- ✓ The permission is recorded as an interest in the appropriate register within five days of the Lodger approval and reported to the Board of Management along with confirmation that the necessary management processes were followed at the next meeting.

Our Lodger Policy will show that we have followed these rules where they apply.

7.0 NOTIFICATION OF DECISION

Ochil View will notify the tenant in writing of its decision within 28 days of receiving their application. Where consent has been refused, we will advise the applicant of the reason/s for refusing the consent. If Ochil View has not made a decision to refuse or to consent within 28 days of receiving the written application Ochil View will be deemed to have consented to the same under and in terms of Schedule 5, Part 2, Para 12 of the Housing Scotland 2001 Act. Where the applicant is dissatisfied with the Association's decision, the applicant may seek further information and explanation of our decision and may exercise their right to appeal as set out in the Complaints procedure.

8.0 FINANCIAL SUPPORT WITH HOUSING COSTS

The Association works in partnership with local authorities to minimise fraud and overpayment in payment of financial support with housing costs. We are required to notify the local authority of a significant change in the circumstances of any tenant that may affect their entitlement to financial support with housing costs. We will notify the local authority and where applicable the Department of Work and Pensions of any changes in household of which we are notified.

9.0 LODGERS AND RECHARGEABLE REPAIRS AND THE CONDITION OF THE PROPERTY

- 9.1 Tenants shall remain fully responsible for any damage, unauthorised alterations or non-standard fittings caused by their lodger.
- 9.2 Where a property has tenant responsibility repairs, tenant damage, unauthorised alterations or non-standard fittings caused by a lodger, the Association will repair only those items that present a risk to the safety of the tenant.

10.0 REVIEW OF THIS POLICY

- 10.1 This policy will be reviewed at least every five years.

SECTION 32 OF THE HOUSING (SCOTLAND) ACT 2001

- (1) It is a term of every Scottish secure tenancy that the tenant may assign, sub-let or otherwise give up to another person possession of the house or any part of it or take in a lodger—
 - (a) only with the consent in writing of the landlord, and
 - (b) In the case of an assignation, only where the house has been the assignee's only or principal home throughout the period of 6 months ending with the date of the application for the landlord's consent to the assignation under paragraph 9 of schedule 5.
- (2) A landlord whose consent is required under subsection (1) may refuse such consent only if it has reasonable grounds for doing so.
- (3) There are, in particular, reasonable grounds for refusing such consent if—
 - (a) a notice under section 14(2) has been served on the tenant specifying a ground set out in any of paragraphs 1 to 7 of schedule 2,
 - (b) an order for recovery of possession of the house has been made against the tenant under section 16(2),
 - (c) it appears to the landlord that a payment other than—
 - (i) a rent which is in its opinion a reasonable rent, or
 - (ii) a deposit which in its opinion is reasonable, returnable at the termination of the assignation, sub-letting or other transaction and given as security for the sub-tenant's obligations for accounts for supplies of gas, electricity, telephone or other domestic supplies and for damage to the house or contents, has been or is to be received by the tenant in consideration of the assignation, sub-letting or other transaction,
 - (d) The transaction for which consent is sought would lead to overcrowding of the house in such circumstances as to render the occupier guilty of an offence under section 139 of the 1987 Act, or
 - (e) The landlord proposes to carry out work on the house or on the building of which it forms part so that the proposed work will affect the accommodation likely to be used by the sub-tenant or other person who would reside in the house as a result of the transaction.
- (4) Where the landlord is a registered social landlord which is a co-operative housing association, any consent under subsection (1) is subject to the condition that the assignee, sub-tenant or other person is a member of the association when the assignation or sub-lease takes effect or, as the case may be, when possession is given to the other person.
- (5) The Scottish Ministers may by order modify subsection (3).
- (6) It is a term of every Scottish secure tenancy that, where the landlord has given consent to an assignation, sub-letting or other transaction under subsection (1), the tenant —

- (a) must notify the landlord of any proposed increase in the rent which was payable by the sub-tenant at the commencement of the assignment, sub-letting or other transaction, and
 - (b) Must not increase the rent if the landlord objects to the increase.
- (7) An assignment, sub-letting or other transaction to which this section applies is not—
- (a) a protected tenancy or a statutory tenancy within the meaning of the Rent (Scotland) Act 1984 (c. 58), or
 - (b) An assured tenancy, and Part VII (rent assessment) of that Act does not apply to such an assignment, sub-letting or other transaction.
- (8) In this section and schedule 5, “sub-tenant” means a person entitled to possession of a house or any part of a house under an assignment, sub-letting or other transaction to which this section applies, and includes a lodger.
- (9) The provisions of Part 2 of schedule 5, so far as relating to this section, have effect as terms of every Scottish secure tenancy.

GROUNDS ON WHICH COURT MAY ORDER RECOVERY OF POSSESSION

- (1) Rent lawfully due from the tenant has not been paid, or any other obligation of the tenancy has been broken.
- (2) The tenant (or any one of joint tenants), a person residing or lodging in the house with, or sub-tenant of, the tenant, or a person visiting the house has been convicted of-
 - (a) using the house or allowing it to be used for immoral or illegal purposes, or
 - (b) An offence punishable by imprisonment committed in, or in the locality of, the house.
- (3) (1) The condition of the house or of any of the common parts has deteriorated owing to acts of waste by, or the neglect or default of, the tenant (or any one of joint tenants) or any person residing or lodging with, or any sub-tenant of, the tenant; and in the case of acts of waste by, or the neglect or default of, a person residing or lodging with, or sub-tenant of, a tenant, the tenant has not, before the making of the order in question, taken such steps as the tenant ought reasonably to have taken for the removal of that person.

(2) In sub-paragraph (1), "the common parts" means any part of a building containing the house and any other premises which the tenant is entitled under the terms of the tenancy to use in common with the occupiers of other houses.
- (4) The condition of any furniture provided for use under the tenancy, or for use in any of the common parts (within the meaning given in paragraph 3(2)), has deteriorated owing to ill-treatment by the tenant (or any one of joint tenants) or any person residing or lodging with, or any sub-tenant of, the tenant; and in the case of ill-treatment by a person residing or lodging with, or sub-tenant of, a tenant, the tenant has not, before the making of the order in question, taken such steps as the tenant ought reasonably to have taken for the removal of that person.
- (5) The tenant and-
 - (a) the tenant's spouse or Civil Partner¹, or
 - (b) any person with whom the tenant has, for a period of at least 6 months immediately prior to the commencement of the period referred to below, been living in the house as husband and wife or in a relationship which has the characteristics of the relationship between Civil Partners², have been absent From the house without reasonable cause for a continuous period exceeding 6 months or have ceased to occupy the house as their principal home.
- (6) The tenant is the person, or one of the persons, to whom the tenancy was granted and the landlord was induced to grant the tenancy by a false statement made knowingly or recklessly by the tenant.

² As amended by Schedule 28 Part 4 Section 65 of the Civil Partnerships Act 2008

(7) (1) The tenant (or any one of joint tenants), a person residing or lodging in the house with, or any sub-tenant of, the tenant, or a person visiting the house has-

- (a) acted in an anti-social manner in relation to a person residing in, visiting or otherwise engaged in lawful activity in the locality, or
- (b) pursued a course of conduct amounting to harassment of such a person, or a course of conduct which is otherwise anti-social conduct in relation to such a person, and is not reasonable in all the circumstances that the landlord should be required to make other accommodation available to the tenant.

(2) In sub-paragraph (1)-

- "anti-social", in relation to an action or course of conduct, means causing or likely to cause alarm, distress, nuisance or annoyance,
- "conduct" includes speech, and a course of conduct must involve conduct on at least two occasions,
- "Harassment" is to be construed in accordance with section 8 of the Protection from Harassment Act 1997 (c.40).
